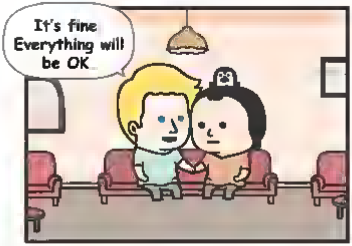
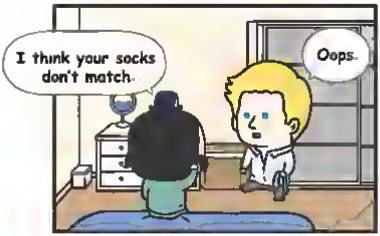
Our roles

夫婦

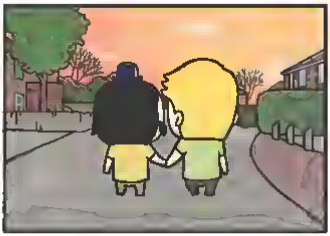
What are our jobs
as a married couple?



Helping to get over difficulties together.



Spotting the others mistakes



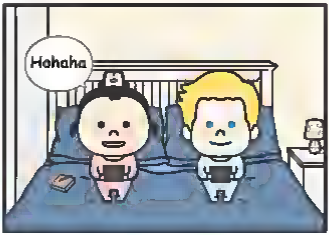
And supporting each other,
I guess

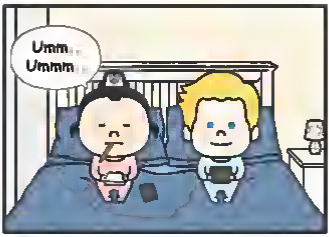
At the same time.

How come we annoy each other so much?

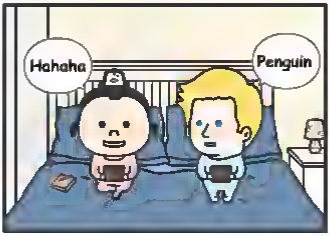
All the small details like face expression, attitude, the way we speak..

So we say that annoying each other is our full-time job.





Umm..
Ummm..



Hahaha

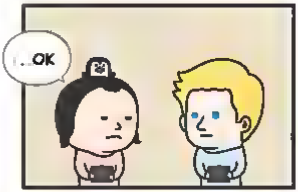
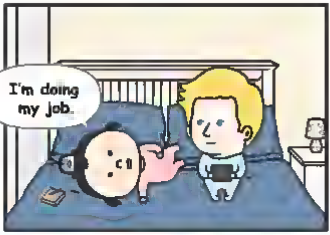
You said you would work really hard all day today



..OK



I'm doing my job.
